Date: - 16-08-2021

Legislature is necessary because it is the organ of the government that makes laws and passes them and also amends old laws. It is of greater importance. No democratic government can do its duty for the benefits of the people without law and cannot contribute to the development of the nation without law.

THE THIRD LECTURE OF GURU NANAK DEV ONLINE LECTURE SERIES, was organised by the Department of Political Science, on 16 August 2021, on a very important topic "UNION AND STATES LEGISLATURE RELATION".

The lively and heart-warming session was inaugurated with an introductory speech by our respected Principal sir, Dr. Sanjay Prasad. His optimism and enthusiasm got infused into the gathering as the event gained momentum, and event turn into a big success.

It was taken up by Dr. Mina Malkhandi, Head of Department Political Science of the host college, who in an enthralling speech not just summarized the session but also enriched it with her thoughtful introspection on the theme. Her introductory note gave a clarity on the theme and at the same time disseminated the idea among the audience clearly.

The keynote speaker of the program on this topic Dr. Arvind Verma, Assistant Professor of Political Science, RK College, from Lalit Narayan Mithila University
