International Women's Day Celebrations
Tuesday, 8th March 2022

On 8th March, 2022, on the occasion of International Women's Day, celebrations were organized by the Women's Cell of Guru Nanak College, Dhanbad in the Vocational Wing of the college. The global day is celebrated for the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity. It celebrates womanhood and pays tribute to the indomitable spirit of women across the globe.

During the ceremony, the Principal of the college, Dr. Sanjay Prasad, while addressing the girl students, appealed to them to keep moving forward by becoming aware of themselves. Dr. Ranjana Das, Convenor of the Women's Cell, presented the historical facts related to the status of women and their self-reliance on the world stage and made the students aware by presenting several examples of empowered women from history like Gargi and Maitreyee, Rudramadevi, Phule Bai, Ahilya Bai, Rani Laxmi Bai, Kalpana Chawla and many more.

Member of the women's cell, Prof. Pushpa Tewari delivered the opening speech and conducted the whole program while Dr. Meena Malkhandi another member of the women's cell proposed the formal vote of thanks.

During the program 31 students of the college presented their views regarding the empowerment of women. The students of Dept of English (Semester-5) also presented a group anthem on renowned poet Tishani Doshi's famous poem "Girls Are Coming Out of the Woods".

Dr. Varsha Singh from Dept. of English ranked the students on the basis of their performances.

Many teachers including Prof. Sanjay Sinha, Prof. Sadhna Singh, Prof. Snehal Goswami, Prof. Abhishek Sinha, Prof. Uday Kumar Sinha were present during the program.
