A Seminar on Soft Skills for Corporate World

ORGANISED BY: Department of Vocational Studies: BCA

Date: 09-12-2023

On Saturday 9th December, 2023, the Department of Vocational Studies: BCA organised a seminar in Sardar J S Grewal Auditorium, Bhuda Campus of the college, on the topic “Soft Skills for Corporate World”.

Soft skills are the interpersonal and communication skills that enables one to interact with others, work in teams, solve problems, and adapt to different situations. Unlike hard skills that can be easily measured or taught, they are the personal attributes and behaviours that shape how you work and relate to others. Soft skills have held an undeniable importance in the personal growth and progress of a person since times immemorial. People with better soft skills find it more convenient to express their ideas, thoughts and beliefs in all walks of life. While hard skills are highly valued in today's economy, many employers recognize the importance of soft skills as well. For that reason, workers with both hard and soft skills may find it easier to get hired and rise through the ranks.

Taking in consideration the important to inculcate soft skills among the students of BCA and BBA, Mr Chandrakant Singh, Vice president, professional engagement and outreach from GNIOT Institute Of Management Studies, Greater Noida was invited to deliver a talk on the topic “Soft Skills for Corporate World”.

Mr Chandrakant Singh, along with his colleague Mr Pranav Sinha and Mr Kishore Kunal came all from Noida and held the session for around 2 hrs. He explained the students about the importance of soft skills and also discussed how to improve the soft skill quality. He further said that with all hard skill and knowledge of subject, the personal grooming and good communication skill can play a key role in taking one to the higher responsibilities post in any sector. He also discussed among students the importance of seven essential soft skills viz., communication, teamwork, problem-solving, adaptability, time management, leadership, and work ethic.

The event started with the welcome address delivered by Principal of the college, Dr. Sanjay Prasad. The subject of the seminar was introduced by the Coordinator BCA, Prof Pushpa Tewari. She briefly introduced the resource person of the seminar Mr Chandrakant Singh also. Prof Uday Sinha proposed the vote of the thanks of the event. Ms Akshika Verma and Ms. Riya Singh from semester-III were the comperers from the day. The other dignitaries who were present on the seminar includes Prof-in-charge Boys' wing Prof. Amarjeet Singh, Coordinator BBA Prof Sanjay Sinha, HOD Political science Dr Meena Malkhandi, Prof. Daljeet Singh, Prof Piyush Agarwal. Prof. Soni Kumari, Prof Shilpa Kumari and a few more teachers from different departments of the college. Around 150 students from BCA, BBA, BA and BCom. Programme of the college benefitted from the seminar.

The event ended with a note that "if hard skills make up the cake of an individual's persona, soft skills serve to be icing over the cake."
