Blood Donation Camp

Venue: - SNMCH, Dhanbad

Date: 16th August, 2024

Organized by: Rotaract Club of Guru Nanak College, Dhanbad

Introduction: The Rotaract Club of Guru Nanak College Dhanbad, in association with the Rotary Club of Dhanbad organized a blood donation camp on August 16, 2024, at SNMCH Dhanbad. The primary aim of the camp was to collect blood donations to support patients in need and to raise awareness about the importance of blood donation.

Preparation and Planning: The preparation for the blood donation camp began several weeks in advance. The organizing committee scheduled the camp and looked for the arrangement of necessary medical staff and equipment. Promotional activities included distributing posters and using social media to encourage participation were held.

Execution: The camp saw a good turnout, with over 30 volunteers participating and donating blood. Medical professionals from the SNMCH were present to ensure the safety and well-being of the donors. The event was conducted smoothly, with volunteers assisting in registration, donor screening, and post-donation care.

Outcomes: The blood donation camp was a resounding success, with a total of 26 units of blood collected. The collected blood will be used to support patients in local hospitals, including those with conditions such as thalassemia, cancer, and other life-threatening diseases. The event also helped raise awareness about the importance of regular blood donation and encouraged more people to become regular donors.

Conclusion: The blood donation camp organized by the Rotaract Club was a significant step towards supporting the healthcare needs of the community. The success of the event is a testament to the dedication and hard work of the organizing committee and the generous participation of the volunteers. The club plans to organize more such camps in the future to continue contributing to the well-being of society.
