Today, on 02-03-24, a career counseling and guidance program was organized by placement cell of Guru Nanak College Dhanbad in association with Haque education and social welfare trust at Bhuda Campus of Guru Nanak College Dhanbad. In this program Dhanbad district DSP Archana Smriti Khalko was the chief guest. She said that students should be kind to themselves in their life, they should not put unnecessary burden of expectations of their family members, friends, and society on themselves. They should work hard continuously with dedication towards their career and success will surely touch their feet. MA Haque (Motivational Speaker) from Haque Education and Social Welfare Trust was the main speaker who explained the basic mantras of career advancement to the students. He inspired the students to prepare for IAS and IPS. The principal of the college, Principal Dr. Sanjay Prasad welcomed the main speaker and chief guest by presenting them with a sapling. He also motivated students to set a goal in life and move towards it with determination. He said that students should be ambitious while planning for their career. About 100 students (both girls and boys) from both campuses pursuing graduation participated in the program. The program was coordinated by prof Sanjay Sinha. College teachers Professor Dipak Kumar, Dr. Mina Malkhandi, Professor Daljeet Singh, Professor Piyush Agarwal, Professor Sadhna Singh and non-teaching staff were present on the occasion.
