

Report on Felicitation Ceremony

At SNMCH Conference Hall

On 19-04-2024

On 19-04-2024, Prof Pushpa Tewari, Coordinator, DOVS: BCA and a dedicated moderator of the Rotaract Club, Guru Nanak College Dhanbad was felicitated for her unwavering commitment and exceptional efforts in organizing blood donation camps. This recognition highlights the significant impact of the contributions to the community and the lifesaving difference made through these events.

The Rotaract Club of Guru Nanak College, Dhanbad known for its consistent community service initiatives, has been actively involved in organizing blood donation camps to address the critical need for blood in medical emergencies from more than 9 years. Prof. Pushpa Tewari has been the forefront of these efforts, ensuring the smooth execution and success of each camp.

The felicitation ceremony was held at SNMCH Conference Hall on 19-04-2024

Distinguished guests, including MLA Dhanbad, Mr. Raj Sinha, Renowned Gynaecologist Dr. Prof. Pratibha Roy, Commanding Officer CRPF Binay Kajala , Dr. Prof. U K Ojha from Department of Medicine SNMCH, Dr B K Pandey in charge Blood bank SNMCH and other technicians of the SNMC Hospital were present at the event to honour the contributions of various clubs of the city The event commenced with a welcome address of Mr. Raj Sinha, followed by speeches from key figures who highlighted the importance of blood donation and praised the relentless efforts of Guru Nanak College in organising several camps throughout the year.

Prof. Tewari was invited on the dais to present her views on the occasion and share her experience too. Later she was presented with a memento and certificate as a token of appreciation. The award symbolizes the community's gratitude and acknowledges the positive impact of the functionary's work.

The felicitation serves as an inspiration to others, emphasizing the importance of community service and the profound difference one individual can make. The Rotaract Club remains committed to continuing its efforts in organizing blood donation camps, with exemplary leadership of Principal Dr. Sanjay Prasad Of Guru Nanak College, Dhanbad Setting a Benchmark For Future Initiatives.

Pictures of The Event:

